

ULA COURSE INSTRUCTORS

Beth Bomberger earned a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics Degree with Certification in Secondary Mathematics from Messiah College, and a Master of Education in Mathematics Degree from Millersville University. She taught a variety of 6th -12th grade math classes prior to becoming a mother. She has also taught flute and piano lessons and has learned HTML to update a company website. She is actively involved in her church, Middle Creek Church of the Brethren. Her three children have taught her first-hand how God makes each child unique in personality, learning styles and abilities. This will be Beth Bomberger's 8th year teaching for Learning Station.

Alana Burkholder is a Lancaster native. She received her B.A in creative writing and philosophy from the University of Pittsburgh. She later completed the Teaching Certification Program at Pitt and received certification in English 7-12. Alana has previously taught remedial reading at the Junior High level. She is currently taking classes at Penn State Harrisburg, pursuing a Master's in Humanities. This will be Alana Burkholder's 8th year teaching for Learning Station.

Ellen Campbell received teaching certificates from the state of New Jersey and the state of Pennsylvania. She is a homeschool evaluator and has taught all ages of students in a wide variety of classrooms and other teaching situations for more than 35 years. She homeschooled her own children for 12 years. Ellen took Writing for Children and Teenagers and Writing Children's Books from The Institute of Children's Literature. She was a member of the San Diego County Christian Writers' Guild and of Lancaster Christian Writers. Ellen has had a few articles published. She really enjoys teaching writing, literature, history, and civics courses. This will be Ellen Campbell's 19th year teaching for Learning Station.

Mark Campbell has Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Civil Engineering and is registered as a Professional Engineer in Pennsylvania; retired Engineer in California and New Jersey. Mark has served as a volunteer judge for the Future City competition and the Capital Area Science and Engineering Fair. He has experience teaching students at many age levels and frequently makes presentations to governmental decision-makers regarding civil engineering projects. He often teaches classes integrating faith and science. In addition to teaching, Mark runs his own consulting engineering business. This will be Mark Campbell's 6th year teaching for Learning Station.

Stephen Leed has been a full time artist for over 25 years. He has twice won the Pennsylvania Game Commission's Working Together For Wildlife Art Competition. His work has graced the covers of Pennsylvania Game News and Bird Watcher's Digest. His equine paintings have been in national museum shows and he is an associate member of American Academy of Equine Art. This will be Stephen Leed's 10th year teaching for Learning Station.

Sarah Mershon received her B.S. in Music Education from Lebanon Valley College. After teaching for one year, she completed business and accounting courses that prepared her to manage a medical practice for ten years. God then directed her path to home educating her two children. During the years of co-op involvement, geography became one of Sarah's most-loved classes. This will be Sarah Mershon's 22^d year teaching for Learning Station.

Ian Turner earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Kentucky and a Master's of Science degree in Geography from the University of South Carolina. Having grown-up in South Carolina, Ian arrived in Lancaster in 1992 to begin his professional career as a cartographer with GeoSystems, Inc.—the company that would in 1996 evolve into MapQuest. Ian has 25 years of practical and managerial experience in the mapping industry. He has owned his own mapping company, Globe Turner, LLC, since 2012. Ian and his wife, Kristen, have three children and live in Lancaster. The family attends Highland Presbyterian Church in Lancaster where Ian serves as chairman of the Global Outreach Committee. Ian's interests include meteorology, history, politics, and coin-collecting. This will be Ian Turner's 2nd year teaching for Learning Station.

Donna Van Scyoc is from New Holland, PA. She and Her husband love to travel. She taught art at Living Word Academy for 9 years and presently is teaching private art lessons. She also gives paint parties for adults and children. She works as an designer for Flourish.Flower. She enjoys spending time with her family, cooking, playing games, interior decorating and painting. She likes reading a good novel and painting. She has traveled to over 30 countries mostly doing missions work. This will be Donna Van Scyoc's 8th year teaching for Learning Station.

Vanisa Weist received her bachelor's degree from Messiah College and her Master's and Doctoral degrees from The Pennsylvania State University. She has over ten years of experience teaching all levels of Spanish at Penn State, Ohio University and Messiah College. She has spent time in numerous Spanish speaking countries including Spain, Mexico, Peru, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, and Panama. This will be Vanisa Weist's 8th year teaching for Learning Station.

Clifford Zeller has a bachelor's degree in History and a Masters in Bible with a proficiency in Greek from Bob Jones University. He has taught, or is currently teaching, Life Science, Environmental Science, Earth Science, Astronomy, Physical Science, Engineering, Chemistry, Physics, Advanced Physics, Biology, Algebra II, Geometry, US history, and World history. He taught at Lebanon Christian Academy from 2002-04 and has been teaching and tutoring homeschoolers since 2004. He spends much time hiking and exploring PA's forests searching for historical relics and all things sciency. This will be Cliff Zeller's 8th year teaching for Learning Station.