

C.S. Lewis Book Club Syllabus
ULB Spring 2019
Taught by Christi Minnich

In this course, students will study both informative and imaginative works of C.S. Lewis. They will evaluate and analyze 3 whole works, focusing on theology and philosophy, while keeping a journal to aid in discussion with their classmates. Students will discuss Lewis's ideas in regards to contemporary issues and their personal life perspective, as well as evaluating the key points of their individual Christian world view.

Students will not turn in homework, but they will need to maintain journal entries for each chapter, based off of writing prompts to continue participating in this class.

Course Supplies: Mere Christianity, Screwtape Letters, The Great Divorce
